technology to support indirect mood lighting, air conditioning and other modern comforts.

No expense was spared in the kitchen where honed dolomite benchtops were chosen for their striking looks as much as for their durability. A unique feature is the PITT stove with its gas burners rising up directly from the countertop.

The rear balcony is by far the largest in the complex. With direct access from both guest rooms, it is a lovely retreat above manicured gardens and a row of tall, established trees.

The North facing main terrace is larger again, combining the alfresco feel with plenty of intimacy and shelter from the ocean breezes.

Embedded in lush greenery, both terraces are a constant reminder of the special Magnolia Lane lifestyle where you reside in a tranquil paradise of birdsong and grazing kangaroos whilst amenities such as the local shopping village and the golf club are only metres away. Combined with an all-new residence, finished to the highest standards and ready to move in, this lifestyle is the ultimate dream.

To make it come true, call Lydia and arrange your private inspection.

Here are just some of the many features included:
