

Tropical Oasis On The Water

High ceilings, huge open spaces, an abundance of natural light and pleasant cross-ventilation on the hottest of summer days define this magnificent home as a delightful tropical oasis. It's a place where you just want to daydream in a hammock, right next to your sparkling pool with water views that just keep stretching away into the distance.

It's also a place to welcome and entertain the largest of crowds. An immense central gourmet kitchen with walk-in pantry and extra-wide stone benches services an open-plan dining, living and lounge area that spans the entire width of the residence, beautifully enhanced by a light well that accentuates the internal space like a conservatory.

The alfresco areas are a careful arrangement of roof-covered terraces on the main level and sundecks surrounding the pool on the garden level, all embracing the glorious water views.
