hottest of days thanks to refreshing crosswind breezes between the main terrace and the rear balcony.

All three bedrooms are very generous in size; the master with its lavish ensuite opens to the main terrace whereas the guest bedrooms share a rear balcony overlooking the pool area and the groomed gardens of the estate.

A magic place to be with family and friends is the rooftop terrace with your own private spa, which has been fully enclosed for year-round all-weather comfort.

From fixtures and fittings to floorings and paint work, everything is brand new in this apartment. The new lucky owners will find nothing left to do but to move in and enjoy a carefree life in an idyllic location, with epic views, resort-style facilities, the security of a gated community and easy lift access from your underground double-car parking with enormous storage space.

Situated in an idyllic location right in the heart of Twin Waters with easy access to golf course, shopping village, river, beaches and the Sunshine Coast airport, apartments in the View Point complex have always been in high demand, which has only increased in recent months. Don't miss the rare opportunity to live in one of the best and call Lydia for your inspection.
