Just imagine. Being able to enjoy all of the benefits of a retirement village: security, sense of community, freedom to lock up and travel, professional on-site management, no property maintenance etc. And then being able to avoid the potential disadvantages: huge exit fees payable on sale of your property, compulsory internal upgrades, onerous rules and regulations and so on.

No need to imagine it... It is right here. This truly wonderful, freehold, free standing three bedroom home, set within a secure, gated community on the Twin Waters lakefront, will never incur any exit fees. It is ideal for a retired or semi-retired couple but would also suit a smaller family or professional couple seeking a peaceful home within a welcoming community. In fact, residents and friends gather every Friday evening by the poolside, for a natter, nibbles and drinks.
