Unit 26, 20 Baywater Dr, Twin Waters

Rare Free-Standing North Facing Villa within the View Point Complex

The View Point apartments offer the easy and relaxed lifestyle of a gated community where garden and pool maintenance are all taken care of and where you can lock up and leave at a moment's notice.

26 View Point blends all these conveniences with the exclusivity of a free-standing home. As one of only two residences in the entire complex that is completely detached, this magnificent villa features a spacious double garage, side access and a rear gate that allows you to explore and enjoy a network of beautiful walking and cycling paths directly from your own gardens.

A similar sense of space and individual style awaits inside where the entire ground floor is allocated to offer a generous and stylish open-plan living experience. A dedicated dining area and a spacious, inviting lounge flow out to an all-weather and a spacious, inviting lounge now out to an all-weather entertaining terrace and a sundeck within your very own backyard where the dense foliage of Lilly Pilly hedges provide a beautiful curtain of privacy.

The kitchen is cleverly set back, offering direct garden access plus easy garage access through the adjacent laundry.

A landing on the upper level separates the master suite from a two-bedroom guest wing. Featuring a lavish bathroom with spa bath, the master suite spills out to a fabulous roof-covered deck which is a fantastic place to enjoy a balmy night in complete privacy.

Serviced by a second bathroom with a large walk-in shower, the guest rooms overlook the landscaped interior gardens of the View Point complex.

With their fantastic location by the Twin Waters lake and with their relaxed and easy lifestyle, the View Point residences are tightly held by their owners. A free-standing residence within this complex is an even rarer commodity, representing a sound investment for the future.

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity and call Lydia for your inspection.
