lakefront is as unique as the design of this home that matches the vast body of water with its own generosity. On the ground floor, a light-flooded open-plan design with a stylish circular dining area connects seamlessly to an all-weather alfresco terrace, beautifully manicured gardens and a meticulously maintained, sparkling pool.

Adjacent to the terrace, a separate wing on the Southern side of the property offers apartment-style guest accommodation complete with its own ensuite, living room and bar with plumbing in place for an optional upgrade to a kitchenette.

Even more dramatic are the water views from the master suite and its balcony on the upper level. A second living area and one of two guest bedrooms open to another large balcony, allowing your guests to share the views of the breathtaking scenery.

A large attic complete with flooring and lighting offers abundant storage. There is also additional storage or workshop space in the garage, plus a roller door allowing for drive-through boat or trailer parking.

Properties in Bluewater Court are tightly held by their owners and are very rarely available for purchase. Built to last and beautifully maintained by its original owners, this residence presents investors and lifestyle enthusiasts with a rare chance to secure the very best in waterfront living at a price well below replacement value.
