

7 Oceanic Ct, Twin Waters

Lakefront Elegance

A dream lifestyle is on offer in this elegant and completely private residence right on the lakefront in Oceanic Court. Taking full advantage of panoramic water views across a tranquil and picturesque bay, Number Seven is a beautiful single level home on a generous 885m2 allotment with 320m2 of living space under roof, in one of the most prestigious, quiet and peaceful waterfront cul-de-sacs in Twin Waters.

A large front garden leads to feature double entry doors with a highlight window above to flood the welcome foyer with natural light. Two living zones ensure you are spoilt for choice: Kick off your shoes and read a book here, or sit back and enjoy a movie there. The central kitchen includes plenty of work space and 30mm granite bench tops. A handy servery opens directly to a covered terrace for poolside dining. Designed to make entertaining a breeze and to take in the ambience from all aspects, there are two more alfresco decks to be enjoyed, on pool and on lagoon level.

A variety of ceiling heights, all the way up to 3 metres, delineates floor areas and contributes to an exceptional sense of light and space.

A total of four large bedrooms, all with built-in robes, provide plenty of accommodation for friends and family. Star of the show is the luxurious master suite with alluring water views, spacious open plan bathroom and separate walk-in robe. A separate office with built-in cabinetry can easily double as a fifth bedroom.

Lovingly maintained and very well presented, this residence combines timeless architectural style, easy living on a single level and a prime location. It is a rare investment opportunity not to be missed.

Be quick and call Lydia for your private inspection.
