floor to ceiling glass sliding doors to cool summer breezes that create a pleasant ambience on the hottest of days. A large roof-covered patio to the Southern side of the property is the perfect space to entertain family and friends with the lake as a picturesque backdrop. Your own private lawn and a private rear gate connect directly to the parklands at the banks of the lagoon and to Twin Waters' famous network of scenic walking and cycling tracks.

The internal living is a perfect match to the generous flow of garden and terrace space. Due to its unique corner position, this apartment offers a considerable amount of additional room in comparison to other two-bedroom apartments in the complex. The extra space can be felt everywhere, in the open-plan main living area and its elegant central kitchen with a large island bench, in the master bedroom embedded in lush gardens and in the ensuited guest quarters with direct access to the front terrace. A separate laundry and a separate powder room add to the feeling of generosity.

Basement parking with lift access, immaculately groomed grounds with two swimming pools, spa and BBQ area add to the convenience. Combined with its prime location in the very heart of Twin Waters, just a short stroll away from the golf club and the local shopping village, this apartment is a complete and irresistible package that won't last.

Be quick and call Lydia for your private inspection.
